

K-LOVE provides music and information which is safe for all members of my family hear. It provides family oriented instructional teachings strengthening the family bond and strengthening the community. This wholesome and encouraging programing through strenghting local families has a positive impact on the communities it services.